

June 2026 — Composition Of The Australian Economy

Data Source: Reserve Bank Of Australia – 16 June 2026

Australia's economic composition highlights the importance of population growth, strong household wealth and continued reliance on exports. Resources remain the nation's largest export category, accounting for 57.8 per cent of exports, with China remaining Australia's largest trading partner. Health and education represent the largest industry sector, reflecting the growing importance of services to economic activity.

The figures also underline the significance of housing and household balance sheets. Residential property values remain elevated, while household debt continues to exceed annual income. Overall, the data point to an economy supported by population growth, international trade and strong household wealth, while remaining closely linked to commodity markets and property values.

The Auctioneers and Valuers Association of Australia (AVAA) is the nation's preeminent professional association representing valuers and auctioneers working across fine art and antiques, rare books and coins, memorabilia and collectables, motor vehicles, aviation and marine, household and office goods, plus plant and equipment.

AVAA is a member-led association that exists to support professionals in the sector, through individual certification, publication of industry standards, the provisions of professional development programs, and advocacy of policy reform to the Australian, state and territory governments.

Our Vision

Where clients and government recognise valuers and auctioneers for their professionalism, technical expertise, credibility and integrity when they hold the respected AVAA Certified Valuer (CVAU) and AVAA Certified Auctioneer (CAAU) professional credentials.

Our Mission

To advance the careers and standing of professionals holding the respected CVAU and CAU credentials by setting clear professional and ethical standards, delivering quality education, and being an effective voice for the valuation and auction sectors in a changing market.
